

About Manoucher

In 1983, Manoucher Etminan committed himself to apply the same principles in baking as he would in his art and today this philosophy still rings true. For over 25 years, we at Manoucher Bread have been providing the world with our unique handmade breads from our original artisan bakery in Toronto, Canada. Each and every loaf that comes out of the oven is born from a recipe perfected by its creator, then carefully dressed by hand using only the best all-natural ingredients. Fine restaurants, shops, and airlines around the world can enjoy the taste and texture of fresh Manoucher Breads, thanks to our in-house flash-freezing process that ensures 100% freshness as we deliver to your door.
